

CAMP at Paws In Progress

What to expect when your dog comes to camp:

- Camp at Paws In Progress is to give your dog a safe place to stay that maintains your dogs training.
- Every day they will practice waiting at doorways and have the training they already know reinforced as it presents opportunities in daily life.
- Due to different training levels, daily schedules and personality conflicts not everyone will be included in every activity.
- Some days are very busy days for your pup and other days are for rest and learning to chill.

Upgrades NOW Available.... “DAY ADVENTURES” & “TUNE UP PACKAGES”

Who cares for your dog:

An Incredible team of skilled dog handlers, working together to give your dog the fulfillment they deserve out of everyday. While Eleza focuses her efforts in TRAINING through private lessons, and current training dogs, she has built a team to help continue offering clients this camp experience.

- Eleza Kerfoot / Stewart
- Eleza’s husband Kevin Stewart (has been helping behind the scenes at Paws In Progress since 2015)
- On Occasion for a day, couple hours or an evening a Professional pet sitter, Dog Trainer or someone specifically trained by Eleza will fill in when needed. These professionals have been trained to the Paws In Progress standards to still keep your dogs accountable to their training and polite behavior.

What to bring:

- Food (Please include an extra day or 2 just incase your plans get delayed) A note about how much at each meal and specifics is helpful.
- Leash & ALL Training Collars
- Treat Donations (Welcomed - not required.)

Pre-Requirements / Health Safety:

- Your dog can’t have been to a dog park, doggy daycare or boarding facility within 2 weeks prior to staying at Paws In Progress. Our goal is to reduce the potential risk of a dog bringing in an illness.
- Honor System
 - If your dog has an upset tummy, runny poop, personality / behavioral changes, or on new medication please communicate this before your dogs stay.
 - A vet visit may be required before their stay for symptoms that pose a potential concern to the health and safety of other dogs.
- If you’ve seen a change in behavior, or your dog has had a traumatic experience (example: attacked by dog..) since i saw them last, you need to communicate this BEFORE their stay.
